

Registering For Texidium

You may be prompted to register for Texidium while in the process of ordering books from your school. You can also register by clicking the Register link on the Texidium sign-in page (though if you register that way, you won't have any books in your Library until you order some). The registration process is the same regardless of how you reach it.

You may use any valid email address that belongs to you. We encourage you to use your personal email to ensure you have continued access beyond your graduation.
